Prayer M. Madueke

Christian Author

My name is Prayer Madueke. I’m a spiritual warrior in the lord’s vineyard. An accomplished author, speaker and expert on spiritual warfare and deliverance. I’ve published well over 100 books on every area of successful Christian living. I’m an acclaimed family and relationship counselor with several of titles dealing with those critical areas in the lives of the children of God. I travel to several countries each year speaking and conducting deliverance, breaking the yokes of demonic oppression and setting captives free.

I will be delighted to partner with you also in organized crusades, ceremonies, marriages and marriage seminars, special events, church ministration and fellowship for the advancement of God’s kingdom here on earth.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The writing of a book necessarily involves many people. Therefore, my first gratitude goes to Almighty God, who gave me the strength and wisdom to put down my thoughts and inspiration on paper. Glory be to our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

I wish to extend my heartfelt gratitude to my godfathers in the Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministries, for their unflinching support and love over the years. Foremost among those to whom I owe a debt of gratitude is Dr D. K. Olukoya, General overseer of the Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministries. He happily read the manuscript and approved it for publication. I am also immensely grateful to my Regional Pastor, Lade Abiodun and his wife.

Finally, my gratitude goes to my wife, Roseline C. Madueke, and my children, who had to bear the brunt of the many hours I denied them that love that is so essential in a happy relationship.
DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to God Almighty for His divine grace.
CHAPTER ONE

Man’s Original State and Position

Man was created by God after His own likeness. God’s image was duplicated; copied inside man. From the beginning man walked in innocence, holiness and purity. He was made free from all sins; clean of all moral corruption and pollution; and completely free from the powers of sin. He was created in God’s image; set apart for sacred use and dedicated to God to rule and have dominion over all other creatures. Man’s affections were pure; alienated from sin, and exalted to a supreme love of God. The heart of man and likeness was brought into conformity with the will of God.
“Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man” (Genesis 9:6).

“And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day” (Genesis 1:31).

“For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour” (Psalms 8:5).

Any power that rises against man is God’s number one enemy because it is an attack against His image. After creating man, God said that man was good because he was created in righteousness and true holiness, without sin (Ephesians 4:23-24). Man was and still is the crown of God’s creation; made only “a little lower than the angels,” but by voluntary disobedience and transgression, he fell into the depths of sin, and became utterly void of the holiness required by God in His word.
“And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ” (Colossians 2:15-17).

The whole world or creation was brought under curse, and all men in Adam became sinners; captives inclined to evil, guilt and without excuse; deserving the condemnation and judgment of a just and holy God. That was how man fell and became a traitor, an outcast, a leper; and everything came against him. Man was driven out from God’s presence. Satan attacked man because sin exposed man to satanic attacks. Man became spiritually dead (1 Timothy 5:14-15-16; Ezekiel 18:24, 26), sick (Deuteronomy 28:58-63), and terrible (Leviticus 26:14-20). Shame, incurable diseases, late marriage, divorce, death, and all manner of problems came upon man. That was how man became enslaved by the devil, and had his conscience seared with a hot rod of iron. Man’s understanding was arrested and darkened by evil.

“But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned” (1 Corinthians. 2:14).

The devil deceived man and made his heart desperately wicked (Jer. 17:9). He attacked man’s conscience and defiled it. He attacked man’s will and enslaved it. He uprooted the root of righteousness and planted the root of sin (Titus 1:15, Romans 7:18, 6:6, Ephesians 4:22, Colossians 3:9). That was how sin replaced righteousness. Departing from God’s image, man became carnal and filthy. Satan became a dominating tyrant and an inward enemy of man. He captured man’s original moral nature and man began to commit sin, whether he liked it or not.
“For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death” (Romans 7:14-24)?
Satan is the author of sin while God is the author of righteousness, holiness and purity. God’s work is perfect; the devil’s work is imperfect and destructive. God’s ways are judgment; of truth without iniquity; just and right; but the devil is the opposite.

“And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory” (Isaiah 6:3).

“He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he” (Deuteronomy 32:4).

“Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity” (Job 34:10).

What God wants from man is clearly stated and well explained to man to his best understanding. God is not to be blamed for the sin of man (Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-6).
Man knew God’s command and he had the power to keep it. The origin of sin is not from God but came from the first choice of man on earth. It is unfortunate to say that many people on earth are repeating the same sin of the first man on earth. Majority of people today on earth are listening to the lies of the devil; looking at the forbidden fruit and doubting God’s clearly prohibited fruit, and even influencing others like Eve to do evil.

“For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them... Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened... Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools... Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have "pleasure in them that do them" (Romans 1:32, 18-19, 21-22).

Through Adam, all men took sides with the devil. God is not the first person to reject man. Man rejected God, befriended the devil and ran away from God.

“And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden. And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat” (Genesis 3:8-13).
“And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen? If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him... And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?”

(Genesis 4:6-7, 9)

In the Old Testament, God personally came to deliver man from the bondage of sin and all manner of problems. Adam and Eve ran away from God’s presence when he visited them to help them out of their problems. They hid themselves from the presence of God among the trees of the garden instead of acknowledging their sins, confessing and forsaking them.

“He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy” (Proverbs 28:13).
They began to shift blames as Cain asked God the first and most disrespectful question on earth. He planned to murder his brother, and refused to repent and forsake his sins. The world grew out of God’s plan and purpose. God sent angels, preachers like Noah, and Enoch. But they refused to listen. He sent Moses, prophets and prophetesses but they stoned some of them unto death. Human race rebelled against God and broke His law with impunity. They incurred the death penalty and were brought under the sentence of death.
Ghost in Our Midst

Because of the fall of man, all men inherited the nature of sin and began to sin.

“Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God” (Romans 3:19).

“He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God... He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him” (John 3:18, 36).

Man committed sin when he broke the law of God. Judged and found guilty, man was condemned to death. The devil, his royalists i.e. demons, all unclean spirits, are the ghosts in our midst. They are the worst enemy of God on earth and the prosecutors of the laws on earth.

“And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day... Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities” (Jude 1: 6, 8)

“The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (John 10:10).

These are the powers that effected the arrest of all sinners on earth. When God saw how wicked the devil was, and is, he pitied man on earth and started planning for his redemption or deliverance.

“How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?"

(Isaiah 14:12-17)

The devil in his prosecution and punishment against man on earth made the earth to tremble. He shook the earth’s foundation and the kingdoms on earth. He turned the whole world into a wilderness and destroyed the cities thereof. He refused to open the house of his prisoners. When God demanded for the release of humanity, the devil refused, quoting the scripture.

“And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it. And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die” (Genesis 2:15-17).

“For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord” (Romans 6:23).

When John saw how he was treating human beings, he called him the accuser (Rev. 12:10). Peter called him the adversary (1 Peter 5:8). John again called him Abaddon, dragon, sinner, old serpent, and a murderer (Rev. 9:11, 12:3, 9; John 8:44; 1 John 3:8). Jesus called him the father of lies (John 8:44). Matthew called him Beelzebub; Isaiah called him Lucifer, Paul called him god of this world, prince of this world, and prince of the devils. Some others called him prince of the air, ruler of darkness and Satan (Luke 10:18, Matthew 12:24, John 14:30, Eph. 2:2; 6:12). Jesus directly called him Satan, prince of this world and he never denied any of these wicked evil names. God really wanted to save man from the devil, but he also wanted to keep his Word as a holy and just God. The devil did not only accuse man but he accused God of trying to help man outside of his Word. The devil knew that man is not capable of saving himself or live to fulfil God’s purpose on earth. Man needed a redeemer who is fit and capable of taking man’s place, and meet the terms of the law. Man needed someone who would become a legal substitute by paying the redemptive price for man, who the devil has accused, judged and condemned to death.
Philosophy of Deliverance

The Great Search

The search for a redeemer started and the devil was happy because he knew that no human being is qualified, not even an angel. He concluded that man will forever remain under this bondage and serve under him forever. By the time the search started, man was in a big mess; imprisoned in different kinds of prisons all over the world with all manner of problems.

Devil’s Demand

The devil demanded from God, a sacrifice; shedding of a perfect, spotless blood; a substitute, to deliver man from eternal punishment. He insisted that it must be a sacrifice without blemish, sinless and holy.

“And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon” (Revelation 5:2-4).

When the search started, no man was found qualified in heaven, in earth and under the earth. As a result, the devil sized God’s original programme for man. It was in a book form; a scroll, written within and on the backside; rolled up and sealed seven times.

As a seal, the imprint was put upon it to forbid or prevent an unauthorized person from opening it. This seven-sealed book has never been opened after the sin of Adam in the Garden of Eden. The destiny of mankind was sealed, enveloped, and confined in a scroll. This scroll contains divine programmes for each individual one earth; the climax of human history. It contained the divine programme for man in seven perfect stages of the beginning of a man after salvation, to the end of his day on earth.
“And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals” (Revelation 5:1).

“And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein” (Ezekiel 2:9).

Because of sin, the law forbids any sinner from knowing and doing God’s will, no matter how much education or position you enjoy in earth.

“For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death” (Romans 7:14-24)?

No matter what a sinner enjoys today, they are enjoyments outside God’s programme. As a sinner, you may be having feast days, but no safe days. The rich man who spent his time on earth feasting, regretted his whole life of feast on earth and wished he was given another opportunity to amend his ways.

“There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day... And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame... For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment” (Luke 16:19, 22-24, 28).

The best day of a sinner on earth is filled with a curse and God’s wrath on daily basis. Sinners have only one choice on earth: to turn from sin or burn in hell fire forever. Until you repent, your life on earth remains a struggle. Doom is imminent because eternal perdition awaits every unrepentant sinner. The destiny or divine programmes of all sinners are closed.

Everyone on earth needs a Saviour; someone who is worthy and qualified to re-claim his destiny and help him to fulfil God’s purpose one earth. When in heaven, on earth, under the earth no such person could be produced, John started weeping; praying for God’s intervention.
God Meets the Demand

Since man did not know Christ until he was manifested and was revealed by God, man remained hopeless, helpless, and a salve in the hands of the devil. In the midst of that hopeless situation, God sent his only begotten son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (John 3:16).

“And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel” (Genesis 3:15).

When the devil saw such a sacrifice from God, he had a stroke.

“And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven” (Luke 10:18).
When Jesus entered into the world, He started preaching to people; calling them unto repentance. He told them to leave the devil’s camp and come to God through Him. He told them to turn away from all known sins. He urged them to change their mind, purpose and action, and come back to their Creator. He stressed the need for total deliverance, and showed mankind God’s will, programme and future plans in eternity. Jesus is the only worthy person that can deliver you from sin and keep you away from the consequences of sin.

“And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne” (Revelation 5:5-7).

He is qualified to go to God on your behalf. Only Jesus can take His own programme for your life, open it, loose it, and reveal to you God’s intentions. If you miss Jesus, you have missed all, no matter what you seem to have now. Jesus entered the earth with the message of deliverance and true repentance.
Objections in the High Court

The devil took mankind to the lower court of Justice and used Genesis, Chapter two verse fifteen to seventeen against us. The book of Genesis, Chapter three, relates the fall of man and separation from God. The consequence was that Adam and Eve was judged and driven out of God’s presence. The whole creation was brought under curse. The devil was also cursed after being judged, and all men in Adam became sinners and captives. Man being under the sentence of death could not pay his own death penalty and at the same time, live again to enjoy freedom from sin, and carry out the divine purpose for which he was created. God decided to send His only begotten Son to pay the price for man’s liberation.

At that point, Satan became angry. He felt cheated and neglected in the plan of redemption. He hated God and mankind with perfect hatred. He tried to stop the birth of Jesus, his ministry on earth, and redemption; but failed woefully.
Jesus’ Life, Teachings and Works

The devil questioned the perfect life and wonderful healings of Christ; insisting that they are not enough to pay the price of redemption.

“The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world” (John 1:29).

“For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit” (1 Peter 3:18).

There is no salvation outside the blood of Jesus Christ. The Devil insisted that Jesus must shed his blood to satisfy the demands of divine justice. Jesus being the only mediator to die as a substitute and live again to intercede for mankind, accepted to die for you and me.

When Jesus was born, his birth, teachings and good works dragged the devil to the high court of appeal.
“And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people. And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea, and from beyond Jordan” (Matthew 4:23-25).

He preached the gospel of the kingdom, healed all manner of sickness and disease among the people. His fame went everywhere as he healed diverse diseases and casted out demons that tormented people’s lives. The lunatic, the paralyzed, and those possessed with devils were healed. The devil still objected in the appeal court and saying, that for full redemption to take place, blood must be shed; and it must be a perfect, spotless, sinless blood. Such person must come from God and must be a seed of a woman. The devil never knew that God could spare His only begotten son to pay for such a price, only to deliver mankind. He did not even believe that Jesus can accept such humiliation of death.

“And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel” (Genesis 3:15).

“And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering? And Abraham said, on, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together” (Genesis 22:7-8).

Abraham told his son Isaac that such sacrifice can only be provided by God. Jesus cleansed the lepers. He healed the sick of the palsy, fever and withered hands. Jesus destroyed fears, healed the lame, opened the eyes of the blind, loosed the dumbs’ mouths, delivered the maimed, fed the hungry ones, paid tax for his followers, casted out unclean spirits, destroyed plagues, calmed great storms, broke chains of bondages, rescued people that were at the point of death, stopped the issues of blood, delivered the disabled ones, opened deaf ears, destroyed uncompromising barrenness, made people who toiled all their life without success prosperous, turned water into wine, delivered impotent people, walked in the sea, and raised the dead!

In the last day at the court of appeal, the devil quoted many scriptures to prove that Jesus’ good works, his perfect life and all the quoted miracles, signs and wonders were not enough to fully deliver mankind from his prison. He insisted in putting some under house arrest, limitations and partial deliverance. He challenged God to bring a divine provision of the perfect substitute and a sin bearer (Gen. 4:15; 22:7-8; Exo. 12:1-13; Lev. 22:21; Isaiah 53:4-8; John 1:29; 3:14-15).

The above scriptures were quoted by the devil in the appeal court to prove his points and objections. The appeal court on the last day of Judgment unanimously agreed that based on the above quoted scriptures from the legal department of satanic kingdom, mankind needed not but a perfect spotless, sinless person to die for the sins of mankind. The world needed a mediator who could die as a substitute and yet be alive after death to intercede for mankind (Revelation 5:1-14).

On earth, in heaven, and under the earth; only one person was qualified to fully atone for man and only God could provide this perfect Redeemer – only Jesus can save. When the court of appeal dismissed that day, the devil was very happy. The host of the kingdom of darkness was in a celebrating mood. The chain of bondage was doubled on man and his task was increased. The reason was that they believed that God will never spare his only son to die. The second reason was that, they never believed that Jesus could agree to face the worst death just because of mankind. With these, man was eternally doomed, abandoned to serve the devil forever.
The Last General Conference in Heaven

This conference was the last before Jesus went to the cross to die for the liberation of humanity. Before that conference, Jesus took the last supper with his disciples (Mathew 26:17-35). During the supper, He told them of his betrayal, sufferings and death. After the supper, He took Peter and two sons of Zebedee to Gethsemane. At Gethsemane, the last general conference began in the midst of the innumerable company of angels.

“But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel” (Hebrews 12:22-24).

Jesus was physically on earth at Gethsemane but spiritually in heaven for the conference. The curtain of heaven was drawn and Jesus entered the eternal city; the new Jerusalem, for the general assembly. There, the judge of all; God Himself, was on the throne of power.

After God has declared His intention again to offer His only son to deliver mankind, Angel Michael, other angels agreed that the world needs a mediator of the New Covenant; an advocate with the Father. The last person that spoke was Christ.

“And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done” (Matthew 26:39-42).

Jesus finally agreed to submit to God’s will when He saw that it was not possible to save the world without shedding His blood as a sacrifice. After the conference, God offered Him to die. God turned his face away from Christ, the innumerable company of angels, and His disciples. Every creature refused to assist Him in the battlefield. He was betrayed, arrested, denied by Peter, and all His friends. The people He healed all forsook Him, and fled. The chief priests, the elders, all the council came up with two false witnesses against Him.
They all said, “He is guilty of death.” They spat in His face, buffeted Him, and smote Him with the palms of their hands. He was bound and delivered to Pontius Pilate, who condemned Him to death. The soldiers of the governor took Him to the common hall and stripped Him naked, put on Him a crown of thorns and beat blood out of Him. They mocked Christ, and finally took Him to Golgotha; a place of skull. They gave Christ vinegar to drink, which they missed with gall. All these, the devil did to force Jesus to change His mind but He was determined to die to deliver mankind; you and I. Finally, they took Him to the cross and crucified Him. The devil and all the fallen angels came with every problem on earth and laid them upon Christ in the cross. At that point, Christ prayed the only prayer that God never answered. (Matthew 27:46).

If God has answered Christ immediately, the whole world would have been doomed eternally. The devil never ever dreamt that God could turn back from His only Son, just to save me and you. It was unbelievable but a true fact.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (John 3:16).

“What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God’s elect? It is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us” (Romans 8:31-34).

For three good hours, all the problems in the world; call it sickness, disease, stroke, and all the worst situations on earth was placed upon Christ. The devil, the queen of heaven (who is in charge of abominations), and all unclean spirits were hitting Christ in every part of His body, soul and spirit. They used all the occult agents, witches, and wizards to attack Christ; believing that He will change His mind, come down from the cross, and walk back to heaven. But Christ was determined.

“And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. And sitting down they watched him there; And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left. And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God. The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour” (Matthew 27:35-45).

For three hours (from the sixth hour to the ninth hour), God withdrew all His angels on earth and darkness for the first time in creation, took over the leadership of the day. God refused to operate until Christ died on the cross. At the end of three hours, Christ prayed for His deliverance again, but God refused to deliver, because all deliverance has been shifted to me and you.

“He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors”

(Isaiah 53:3-12).

The Lord Jesus has paid the price for your deliverance and every objection to your deliverance is overruled and declared null and void. The death of Christ; His shed blood in the cross of Calvary is a substitute to all your problems on earth. This means that any time poverty, problems, sickness, death, etc. is about or already attacking you, Jesus just appears and takes your place or function. If you are suffering, He simply comes in, moves you out, and takes your place. He simply appears, and says, “don’t attack him; don’t kill him; don’t divorce him” etc. He takes your place, replaces you and serves as a substitute. Jesus is a divine provision for your deliverance; the perfect substitute and sin bearer. Let the bible speak.

“And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed;
it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel” (Genesis 3:15).

“And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here AM I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where IS the lamb for a burnt offering? And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together. And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh: as it is said TO this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen” (Genesis 22:7-8, 14).

“And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, This month SHALL BE unto you the beginning of months: it SHALL BE the first month of the year to you. Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth DAY of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of THEIR fathers, a lamb for an house: And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take IT according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take IT out from the sheep, or from the goats: And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. And they shall take of the blood, and strike IT on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it. And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; AND with bitter HERBS they shall eat it. Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast WITH fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof. And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire. And thus shall ye eat it; WITH your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it IS the LORD'S passover. For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I AM the LORD. And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye ARE: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy YOU, when I smite the land of Egypt” (Exodus12:1-13).

“And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beees or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein” (Leviticus 22:21).

“He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were OUR faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he WAS wounded for our transgressions, HE WAS bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace WAS upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither WAS ANY deceit in his mouth. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put HIM to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see HIS seed, he shall prolong HIS days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his soul, AND shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore will I divide him A PORTION with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors” (Isaiah, 53:3-12).

“The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth: In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus” (Acts 8:32-35).

“And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life” (John 3:14-15).

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God” (1 Peter 1:18-21).

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed” (1 Peter 2:24).

“And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever” (Revelation 5:1-14).
The Devil Dragged to Supreme Court

The death of Jesus crippled the devil. It blotted out the handwriting of ordinances that were against us, which was written against all humanity in the high court. Jesus took it out of our way, and nailed them to His cross. He spoilt principalities and powers, disgraced them, made a show of them openly, triumphed over them and set all mankind free.

“And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it” (Colossians 2:13-15).

The death of Jesus brought to an end all sufferings, cries and every work of the devil. Whatever work the devil is doing on earth today is an illegal job that needs to be stopped. Immediately Christ gave up the ghost, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from top to the bottom. The first stones that hold the earth’s foundation quaked; all the graves of the dead saints opened and they arose from the captivities of the devil. They all came out of the graves and appeared to many people who knew them before.

“Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent; And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God” (Matthew 27:50-54).
What really happened here? The blood of Jesus touched the earth, spoke deliverance unto the universe and set the captives free. The devil and all evil spirits were arrested and dragged to the Supreme Court where God is the judge. The holy, and all-knowing omniscience God, Who is no respecter of persons, judged the devil and all his angels. In the Supreme Court, Jesus presented his perfect, spotless, blameless blood as evidence. His perfect, blood, sinless manhood, virtues and quality of character met the requirements of God and the devil was judged and removed from being the god of this world.

“Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Philippians 2:9-11).
The veil that used to prevent ordinary people, sinners, and the whole humanity from approaching God was torn to pieces by the death of the lord Jesus (Hebrew 9:1-28).
Condition to Benefit from the Supreme Court Verdict

The extent of Jesus’ atonement is universal with an option to accept it or reject it. This is because man is a free moral agent. God gave all men freedom of choice; action to receive or reject divine verdicts of Christ’s death. Salvation or the benefits of the Supreme Court’s verdict cannot be forced or given by God without man’s choice.

“And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned” (Mark 16:15-16).

“That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved” (John 3:15-20).

The gospel must be preached to you and if you believe, you will be saved and start to benefit from the Supreme Court’s verdict. If you don’t believe, you will remain under the condemnation of the verdict of the devil in the lower court. People perish because they didn’t believe that Christ’s death has set them free from all problems. God allowed Christ to die in order to set mankind free from all life’s problems.

“Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light” (Matthew 11:28-30).

The consequence of the fall of man caused everyone to inherit the nature of sin, guilt and condemnation. This brought all manner of problems, burdens and labour without results. This was destroyed by the death of Christ, and the only thing you need to do is to believe in what Christ has done.

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost” (Luke 19:10).

“And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel” (Mark 1:15).

If you are under the yoke of any sin, you are lost and to be delivered. You need to repent of your sins and believe the gospel of Christ. The yoke of sin can lead people into all manner of problems. Naturally, if you repent and believe the gospel, all problems including sin should be a thing of the past, but some demons behind those sins and problems may insist on staying “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Corinthians 5:17).

But that is the nature of the devil; he is an usurper. He is very stubborn. He has subtly deceived even some believers that he owns and controls the world and its fullness. If you are in Christ, you are a new creature. Old things like sickness, lust, poverty and all problems should pass away. But if you repent and find out that those old things are very much available, what do you do? To watch the devil keep you in sin, poverty, sickness and all manners of problem? No! that is not God’s will. It was not His verdict or program for the repented ones.

“What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid.
How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?” (Romans 6:1-2).

“If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?” (Psalms 11:3).

If you are born again but still under the control of sin, you need to fight and resist the devil. If you are born again but still experiences pains, sickness, and poverty, you need to do something. You need to come out from your old way of life and faulty foundation.
Law Enforcement Agents

For your deliverance to be perfect and guaranteed, you have to understand the character of the devil and know that even in the natural, after a court verdict, some victims may refuse to obey the court orders or rules. After death, some stubborn people may refuse to obey a written will. They may even resist will executors; and if you don’t fight for your right, you will not benefit from the will or verdicts, which are written in your favour. If your father wrote a will before his death in favour of you owing an estate, now that he is dead, will you not fight to possess the estate just because the tenants are living in them? I heard about a man in Chicago who was living in abject poverty, yet a rich friend had an estate for him worth 5 million dollars. He was ignorant of this but later, he discovered and went to the bank to claim the money. He acted immediately, went to the bank, introduced himself and he was given some papers to sign. Suddenly, he became rich, though, he had always been rich since the will was written but he was ignorant of it. Jesus knew His rights and never allowed the devil or his agents to control or intimidate Him.
Stand for your Rights

Jesus fasted, prayed and did everything at the right time. He never spared anything that opposed His mission on earth, including the devil and the fig tree. He ate when it was time; turned water into wine at the right time, and never changed stone into bread to please anyone. He didn’t do anything because the devil wanted Him to do so. He never allowed the devil, evil spirits, and problems to remain where they are not meant to stay. He knew His rights and stood on them until He fulfilled His purpose on earth. The devil used all creatures to oppose Him but He resisted and finished His mission on earth, as it was written of Him. When He found sickness, all manners of disease and problems in people’s life, He drove them away. He did not allow poverty or tax collectors to insult his disciples.
“And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute? He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free. Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee” (Matthew 17:24-27).

He disgraced unclean spirits, forced them to hold their peace and come out of the possessed; and they all, without delay. obeyed. He destroyed plagues, calmed great storms, broke evil chains, stopped issues of blood, removed fears from people, destroyed barrenness, prospered people that failed in life, destroyed infirmities, raised the dead, and walked on top of the sea. Christ never spared the works of the devil. He never negotiated with the devil or compromised with him. The devil by nature is very stubborn and a law breaker. He needs to be forced out before he leaves.

“Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7).

The work of demonic enforcement is not the work of a lazy, ignorant, careless, worldly Christians. To do that, sometimes, you need to rise up a great while before day praying for divine support. There is a price to pay in the area of praying and keeping your relationship with God. The disciples prayed all night before Peter was released. Philip was bold enough to confront the wizard that bewitched and swallowed the destinies of a whole city. If things are not going the way they are written for your life, you need to rise and force the devil to bow. Demand an enforcement.
“And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth” (Matthew 28:18).

“And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover” (Mark 16:17-18).

As a child of God, you can force out the devil the same way Jesus did. The whole creatures can be used to torment the devil. Stop his works in your life and others.

“For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God” (Romans 8:19).

Every believer has the court warrant from above to force the devil out of any place on earth. It is not a mean thing to repent, forsake your sins and receive Jesus as your personal Saviour. The problem with many believers is because of the ignorance of what God says, they give up. They believe that they cannot do anything to the devil or their situation. As a result, they undervalue, underestimate themselves, and accept their situation. It is an insult to God for His children to accept poverty just because of their poor background and attacks from household wickedness.

“And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bare him with sorrow. And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he requested” (1 Chronicles 4:9-10).

As a believer, you must not allow the devil to intimidate you. You must stand out as a new creature and force him out of your life. You must not allow him to defile your body – the Holy Ghost’s temple – with problems.
You are a king; and the word of a king is final. Your words have the final authority; not the devil’s or any witch or wizard. As a believer, you have the last say. Our heavenly Father is not a failure, and his children on earth must not accept failure in any area of their lives. From when Jesus entered into public ministry to the day He went to the cross, He always confessed who He is, what He is, and His mission on earth. No matter your situation, maintain who God says you are and refuse to accept any bad condition. Anything that is contrary to what God says about you must be opposed and destroyed. As an ambassador and king on earth, you have the final say; not your circumstances or enemies around you. As an eagle of the Lord, you must fly out of every cage and mount up wings as eagle. You are not a vulture or tortoise. Stand up as if you never committed sin and chase the enemy out of your life. Every objection was overruled the day Jesus shed his blood on Calvary and the devil knows all these very well. You can fast; but if you cannot stand in faith and force the devil out of your life, he will not torment you. This is not the kind of new creature that God made you through the death of His only begotten son. It is wickedness for a finished devil to start again in your life, a finished work. Stop suffering for what Christ has suffered for. Rise up and fight for your right. Don’t accept anything less than new things; the best life and enjoyment without compromise with the devil.

And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you. And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God. Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither” (Exodus 10:24-26).
Those who understand what happened in the cross don’t sin to survive or compromise to make it in life. They will never enter into any agreement with evil spirit or secret society. You need to start your battle today. Face the devil, destroy his works, and refuse to give up until you are completely freed. It is good to fast to make the matter worse to the devil but if you can’t, you can still win the battle.

“And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting” (Matthew 17:20-21).

“And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets: Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection... And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise”

All through Elisha’s life, there is no record of fasting, yet he subdued his enemies. You can obtain any kind of blessing through faith, even without fasting. But try and fast to make the matter worse for the devil. What I am trying to prove is that if you know how to use the blood of Jesus, you can get anything you want through prayer of faith. Many have fasted without any relationship with the blood of Jesus. True faith and a good knowledge on how to appropriate the blood of Jesus can deliver, transform the most vile and sinful person into a clean child of God. If you repent of all your sins and appropriate (claim) the saving power and grace of God, you can move the devil and destroy all his works in any place in life. You can receive all manner of blessings, prosperity, healings and deliverances if you know how to present the blood of Jesus in times of prayers.

You can get any kind of victory if you can appropriate or claim what rightly belongs to you through the shed blood of Christ. God’s plan for you is to prosper in every aspect of your life and no power can modify God’s plan. It will be strange if the son of the richest man in America and the whole world should live in poverty, even after reading his father’s hundred percent will to him. You have a Father and a Saviour, and He has a will for you.
Your Father’s Will

Some people accept poverty, low level of life, and evil situations because of where they were born, who their parents are, and because of satanic attacks. This ought not to be, if you are born again. Your earthly Father may not will anything to you but if you are born again, you are far better than an unbeliever who has all the things on earth. This is because you are a son of God. Your Father is the Creator of the heaven and earth

“But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name” (John 1:12).

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God” (Roman 8:14).

“To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons” (Galatians 4:5).
As a born again Christian, you have a new life, and have entered into a new partnership. You have been spiritually moved from your earthly family to a spiritual family. You are under a will, written by God Himself, and you are empowered to become a partaker of the common wealth of God; just by believing in the name of Christ. Your surname is spiritually changed and you are entitled to a share of God’s wealth as a son of God. The Spirit of God adopted you into God’s family and you have the right to enjoy everything as a member of Christ. As a member of God’s family, the gates of hell and all the activities of the devil cannot prevail over you. As a born again Christian, your lifestyle must change. You are rich, and no longer wretched and unworthy person that does not amount to anything before. You are loved of God as a younger brother to Jesus and the temple of the Holy Ghost. You are a king and an heir of God. You represent your Father on earth as an ambassador with great immunity. As a son of God, you are special and peculiar. You should soar as an eagle on earth; bearing the mark of your Father. You became the son of the owner of the whole universe - heaven and earth, and the fullness thereof. As a son, if you are ignorant of these facts, you will suffer unnecessarily and starve yourself of what rightfully belongs to you.

“Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing. And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him. And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine” (Luke 15:25-31).

The question is; where can a believer find his father will? Anything you want as a son, and your father can afford it, is yours (1 John 5:14-15, John 5:30). Jesus sought for God’s will; so must you. Where then can you find God’s will? The answer is simple: God’s promises in His word are His will for you. The Word of God is your Father’s written will. The word of God is God’s revelation of God’s will for you. The word of God became more effective after the death of Jesus. The will of a man becomes more effective after the death of such a person. If you die without claiming God’s will for you, you have nobody to blame. The devil knows this very well. That was why he argued that the perfect life of Jesus and his wonderful teachings are not enough to claim all of God’s will for you. He argued that it was necessary for Christ to die, for Him to release man’s full blessings from God. Unfortunately, many believers are ignorant of their full deliverance even after the death of the testator.

“For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth” (Hebrew 9:16-17).

The devil did not argue about this, the only weapon he is using to keep you out of God’s provision now is ignorance. He forms groups, evil societies, and builds idols to keep you under his bondage. He gives you little by little from your own blessings, willed to you by your own Father through evil dedication, initiations, or by committing sin. He forces or influences you to offer sacrifices; or pay a price, which Christ had finished already on the cross. The apostles and Old Testament prophets never negotiated or compromised with the devil, the occult or idol to get what God has already willed for them through the death of Jesus.
“That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God” (Ephesians 2:12-19).
If you are not born again, you are not a son of God. But if you are born again, Christ is with you. If Christ is your Saviour, you are no longer an alien from the common wealth of God. You have a God, a Father, and a saviour, who died and used his blood to adopt you into God’s family as a son. His death broke down the middle wall of partition that separated you from God before. His death abolished the enmity that was between you and God; reconciling you unto God as a son. You are no longer a foreigner or a stranger before God. The death of Christ paid the entire price and made you clean from all sin. You can now benefit from every good thing that God created on earth. You can get whatever you want on earth without permission from the devil or belonging to any evil group. Nobody should attach any evil condition before you get anything on earth. You don’t need to belong to any secret society, kill, or offer any kind of sacrifice again to get anything on earth. They already belong to you, and whoever blocks you must be removed by force. The blood of Jesus has given you access to every blessing on earth but you have the choice to ignore these privileges and remain in bondage.

“I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: That thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them” (Deuteronomy 30:19-20).

“And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD” (Joshua 24:15).
God can only advice you to go and claim your right but will not force you. If you want to enjoy God’s blessings, benefits from His promises, His written will, then keep your relationship with Him and fight for your rights, benefits and entitlements. As a believer, you are saved, empowered, and made fit to fight for your right. Don’t delay. Go into the battlefield and take what rightfully belongs to you from the usurper: the devil and his agents. The devil and his agents may resist, and fight back. But if you insist on your right, they will bow. To fully benefit from this program, you must be sure of your salvation. You have to truly repent and be sure your name is written in the book of life.

“And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only” (1 Samuel 7:3-4).

“Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein” (Jeremiah 6:16).

Sinners need the prayer of repentance, confession of their sins and forsaking them before they qualify to be involved in this program. If you are a backslider, you need to find your way back to God as a prodigal son. If you are born again, you need to fight, pray, and even fast to recover all your lost grounds from the kingdom of darkness. This program is for the true believer who is tired of watching the prodigal sons enjoying; or the rich man faring sumptuously everyday while the owners of divine wealth stay at the gate, full of sores (Luke 16:19-21).
Philosophy of Redemption Emphasized

All life on earth, both in vegetables and animals is sustained and perpetuated by substitution, suffering and death of innocent victims. The devil had arrested man and reduced him to his slave to sin; making him subject to eternal death. By atonement, the arrested man was released by force and his dominion was restored, to enable him to carry on eternal purpose and fulfil his destiny. The full price for man’s deliverance was paid and he was restored to his original position.

“And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth” (Genesis 1:26-28).

The offering of Jesus Christ by God in the cross of Calvary, ended the separation between God and man. This is because of God’s law that says; “the soul that sinneth shall die.” The devil was fully defeated when Jesus Christ, One of the three divine Persons of the Trinity became a man, took the place of man, and paid the full price of man’s deliverance to meet the demand of a just God.

“Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ” (Colossians 2:14-17).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Hebrew 2:14-15).

The greatest mistake the devil ever did was to kill Jesus. He shed the blood of an innocent, sinless, perfect and blameless Christ. By so doing, the supreme court of heaven immediately cancelled all Satan’s rights and claims over man who was his victim. Any claim the devil holds over you now is false, baseless, and null and void.

If you stand on your legal, redemptive blood and divine rights that was bought on Calvary, and resist the devil, you can be freed from all sin, sickness, and all the consequences of the fall. As a believer, you are a representative of God on earth; an officer of God to cast out devils

“And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover” (Mark 16:17-18).

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. If ye love me, keep my commandments” (John. 14:12-15).

Christ’s death gives you the power of attorney to act in Christ’s place and dispossess the devil of his place in your life. As a believer, you will not blame God if you refuse to enforce the law and set yourself free from the devil, whose chief method now is intimidation and deception. To allow the devil, or give him a place in your life is out of divine will and God’s plan for your life.

“Neither give place to the devil” (Ephesians 4:27).

“Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might” (Ephesians 6:10).

“And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you” (Matthew 17:20).

The death of Christ met God’s terms for your redemption. Once you confess your sins and forsake them, you are no longer under the devil. If he tries to keep you in sin, sickness, bondage or any form of problem, you must resist him (James 4:7). You are saved from his control, power and accusation. Immediately you repent. Salvation means deliverance and preservation from evil, sin and the consequences of the fall of man.

“Brethren, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved... That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation” (Romans 10:1, 9-10).

“To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins” (Luke 1:77).

“And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold” (Luke 19:8).

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek” (Romans 1:16).

“And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years” (Luke 1:7).

“Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved” (Acts 4:12).

Also, our salvation includes deliverance from enemies, physical pains, slavery, suffering, and infirmities. You have received forgiveness and cleansing from sins. As a believer, you must fight the devil and force him until you secure your full salvation. The devil is a usurper;
the accuser who has subtly deceived many to believing his lies. Don’t be deceived, fight for your freedom

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith” (2 Timothy 4:7).

Christ is your defence attorney with enough grace to effect your deliverance if you start fighting for your rights. The grace of God is available to change your nature as a sinner if you repent now and forsake your sins. Satan can only win his case over you if you refuse to repent, confess and forsake your sins.
Problem on Suicide Missions

There are spirits in the kingdom of darkness called suicide powers. They come from the most organized dark kingdom of the devil; far below the water level on earth. They are among the most wicked and heartless evil force. In the school of deliverance, they are called powers on suicide missions. They come with different kinds of problems into their victim’s life and are empowered by evil powers to defile every other power except the power of God. They are very suicidal, dangerous and destructive. Their victims are marked by an impulse to commit suicide. They are a special squad of demons released into a particular area of someone’s life, places or things.

“And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy. And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you tomorrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him” (Acts 23:12-15).

When these spirits are released, they don’t come back into the kingdom that sent them without taking their victims to the grave or extinction. They are the spirits that kill and bury. Paul’s evangelistic mission suffered attacks from these wicked powers. When the message of Paul revealed the foolishness of idolatry, the spirits on suicide mission entered the unbelieving gentiles, who went about to kill Paul.

“For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ’s sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day” (1 Corinthians 4:9-13).

“We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body” (2 Corinthians 4:8-10).

These evil forces were assigned not to report back to the kingdom of darkness until Paul was killed. Their appointment against Paul was an appointment unto death. They used persecution, reproachful situations, meekness, lack, hunger, thirst, nakedness, hard labour, scandals and all manner of disgrace to attack Paul. They pressed Paul to the wall; causing him to get tired of life, abandon his ministry, or to commit suicide. They brought trouble in the life of Paul on every side; trying to distress him. But he refused to be distressed. They attacked him with perplexity, yet he refused to be despaired. They openly persecuted and cast him down by the power of death. But he refused to destroy himself or surrender to death.

“For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord’s death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord” (1 Corinthians 11:23-27).

They imprisoned Paul; beat him without reasons, stoned him, pushed him into the water to be drowned, attacked him with armed robbers and ill-treated him on every side. Still he refused to bow down to the powers on suicide mission.

“It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven. And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities. For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me. And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong” (2 Corinthians 12:1-10).

“But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel; So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places; And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear... And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake” (Philippians 1:12-14, 28-29).

The demons on suicide mission hate people who walk contrary to the traditions of the wicked. Demons on suicide mission can use the rain, the storm, the wind, light, darkness, and every creature to terminate the life of their victims. But if you are determined, the love of God and the faith in Christ will open the door of every dungeon, and open the windows of heaven for God to pour upon you overflowing blessings. The target and focus of the spirits on suicide missions is to destroy the joy and peace of their victims. Demons on suicide missions discover people’s destinies and destroy them. They oppress victims unto death and destroy victim’s stars (their greatness), and influence them into wrong decisions. Demons on suicide missions capture people’s progress, destroy it and bury their promising stars. Their victims suffer defeats, hatred and rejection. They close the doors of opportunities against their victims and force them to abandon their divine project designed to make them great. Demons on suicide missions promote poverty completely or partially. They promote infirmities, witchcrafts, failures, fears, curses, and all manner of problems. These evil forces can cause war, riots, and unnecessary quarrels. They can limit people; causing them to struggle in vain in life until they are fed up with life and kill themselves.

“Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD? And the Gibeonites said unto him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, THAT will I do for you. And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that devised against us THAT we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel, Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, WHOM the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give THEM. But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD'S oath that WAS between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite: And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell ALL seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first DAYS, in the beginning of barley harvest” (2 Samuel 21:3-9).

Demons on suicide mission do not leave their kingdom without full definition of their assignments against their victim, complete armour or every manner of assistance from evil kingdom. They are militant, vibrant and ready to combat every opposition unto death. They don’t retreat, or even regard their own life. They don’t take bribes, accept negotiations or compromise without achieving their aims. They are one-way traffic; forward ever and backward never. They know where they are going, how to get there, and their exact assignment.

Unless God intervenes, once they start, they are determined to finish.

“But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter: And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them. And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him, And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly. Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof. And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door. And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door” (Genesis 19:4-9, 11).

If you are not born again, the spirit on suicide missions from the kingdom of darkness will either influence you to kill yourself or kill you by themselves when you are about to make it in life or be celebrated. In time of harvest of what you have laboured to invest on earth, they can terminate your life. The spirit on suicide mission may take your gold and silver; all your material possessions, but that is not their aim. They want your life. They kill their victims prematurely, when they need their life most. At other times, they kill every good thing around you that can make you happy and abandon you on earth as a walking corpse. At that point, you will pray for death but death will run away with all your helpers.

“And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them” (Revelation 9:5-6).

“They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth” (Jeremiah 16:4).

The spirits on suicide missions operate with all manner of deaths. After taking away every good thing and all comfort from their victims, they begin to torment them with grievous deaths, rejection, hatred and loneliness. People will avoid her victims as if they are dung upon the earth. Everything on earth will be against them until they are harvested out of the earth in shame and disgrace. Whoever tries to help such people will be attacked by the spirit of suicide until their victims are left without helpers and loved ones.

“And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath” (John 5:5-9).

The spirits on suicide missions keep their victims long in problems without true determined helpers. This spirit can take victims out of the good things of life. Only those who make friends with Christ can overpower the spirits on suicide missions.
Examples of Victims

The demons on suicide missions sent into Abraham’s family arrested his childbearing. They took over the reproductive organs of Abraham and his wife. They concentrated on Abraham’s reproductive organ and finally occupied Sarah’s womb unto her old age. The spirit of barrenness on suicide mission withstood Abraham until he was a hundred years of age.

“And the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken. And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him. And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me. And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have born him a son in his old age” (Genesis 21:1, 5-7).
No matter how old you are, if you abide in Christ, you will be delivered from the evil powers on suicide missions. No problem, grave spirit, or death can stop your deliverance if you continue with God. When the angel of God told Abraham that the assignment of the demons on suicide missions in his family was over, they were too old to have a child. At that point, every strength for child bearing has been eaten up by the suicide spirits. She was stricken in age and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. Sarah did not believe the angel’s report. In fact, she laughed over it.

“And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him. Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.
Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also? And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old? Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son” (Genesis 18:9-14).

One day, the Lord will come looking for you like He did to Sarah and that day is today. I want you to believe God because every shame, reproach and disgrace in your life is already under judgment. As you read and apply what is written in this book, all your problems will be chased out. All the good things that have abandoned your life will rush back into your life. The question that God is asking you now is;

“Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son” (Genesis 18:14).

If you answer this question aright, every demon on suicide mission in your life will be cast out. I want you to get ready for impossibilities.

The same thing happened to Isaac before Jacob and Esau was born. It also happened to Leah and Rachael but God opened her womb (Gen. 29:31-35; 30:16-24). Hannah also was attacked by the spirit of barrenness from suicide mission department. Elizabeth and Zachariah faced the same battle and overcame them. Today is your day of victory. This is your day of deliverance and testimony! If you believe it, you will see it happen just now.

Joseph was attacked right from his house, as a small boy. He was under the attack of demons on suicide missions. These evil forces released the spirit of hatred and rejection into his blood brothers. He was sold into slavery, sent to prison and forgotten by all his loved ones, and all people he helped in life. His deliverance came because he insisted on doing the right thing according to the Word of God. He defeated suicide demons everywhere he went to. As a slave boy in Potiphar’s house, he was attacked by stress, misfortune, and misrepresentation. In his promotion, he rejected invitation from a strange woman. His stand for righteousness made him to face false accusation and unfair trial. He survived because of his faith in God. The spirits that made the children of Israel slaves in Egypt was the spirit on suicide missions. Before the deliverance of the children of Israel, no nation has gone into Egypt and came out alive.

“And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go” (Exodus 5:2).

The king of Egypt was surprised that Moses was demanding for freedom to serve another God. Pharaoh has never obeyed any other command from another person. Maybe the problem you have now does not respect drugs and the combined efforts of medical science. Maybe you are in a hopeless condition. Your case is not over until God says it is over. To Pharaoh, the case of the children of Israel was over, but God said it was not over. It is possible that your destiny has been arrested, judged and condemned. One, two or more areas of your life maybe under satanic hold. Your family maybe under the yoke of poverty, hatred, rejection, premature deaths, accidents, non-achievement, infirmity, late marriage, yoke of divorce, marital destructions, sorrow or curses. No matter how strong your Pharaoh maybe, trust in your God. The prayers in this book will keep hitting your Pharaoh until he lets you go or die for your sake alone in the Red Sea.

“And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said. Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also. And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men” (Exodus 12:30-33).

“And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them” (Exodus 14:23, 28).

If you abide in Christ and stand for Him, no matter your pains, all the problems on suicide missions in your life will die alone. It is not in the nature of the problem on suicide missions to let her captives go free.
No drug or means compels them to go without killing their victims, except God.

“And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?” (Exodus 14:5).

At times, the problem on suicide missions can be cast out but as they are going, they will promise to come back. This is the spirit that killed Saul, Ahitophel, Samson and Judas Iscariot.

“Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him” (I Samuel 31:4-5).
“And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father” (2 Samuel 17:23).

“And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life” (Judge 16:30)

“And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself” (Matthew 27:5).

A young lady of about twenty-two years walked into my office to tell me that nobody delivers anyone from their kingdom alive. She told me that she was getting ready to die because the powers in her kingdom rejected every sacrifice and pleas she made to be alive. To cut a long story short, I placed her under the prayers of deliverance. On the last night of the prayers, she was delivered but blood flowed all over the deliverance ground. She was surprised that her deliverance took place. She gained admission into the University and graduated four years later. The last time I saw her she was about to get married.

The devil is a liar and I want to assure you that you can be delivered from the demons and problems on suicide assignment over your life. You don’t need to meet me face to face. Pray the prayers in this book and your deliverance will take place now. By the course of my work, I have seen numerous impossibilities become possible. If only you can repent, confess and forsake your sins, your life will discharge every mark of satanic limits; put off every garment of impossibilities; and every problem from suicide demons will avoid your life forever. I am also a living testimony and people who know me simply receive their deliverance by mere knowledge that I am alive today. I want to assure you that with God all things are possible

“And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only” (I Samuel 7: 3-4).

“And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them” (Mark 11:22-24).
Righteousness, faith and prayers are triplets that cannot be defeated. If you are a child of God, you have to have faith in God for your deliverance now. I want to say that fear, discouragement, unbelief are negative to faith. Don’t ever allow circumstances or problems to cause you to fear, doubt or get discouraged in anything. If you believe God, every impossibility in your life will not only go, but they will not think of coming back to you forever. I have seen mountains in my personal life moved. I have seen it in the lives of others disappear and never come back. I want to hear your own testimony. Don’t delay in going through the prayers of deliverance after reading this book. You need to know the philosophy of deliverance and also experience it practically in your personal life. The bible is not just a story or history book. Every miracle you see in it is still taking place in the lives of believers today. The problems on suicide missions when faced with the philosophy of deliverance bow without negotiation, compromise or agreement.

The problem with many people is that they want to cut corners, negotiate, or compromise with the devil. The devil is an enemy that can never be a friend

“And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel” (Genesis 3:15).

“And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you. And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God. Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither” (Exodus 10:24-26).
You have to insist on full deliverance and perfect freedom until you are fully out.
Dealing with Suicide Problems

Towards the end of Paul’s ministry, he said

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith” (2 Timothy 4:7).

We are living in the time of the reign of problems from suicide missions, and you have to contend with such powers instead of surrendering to them. If you look around, you will see that many are already defeated in times of trials, distress and economic recessions. You must fight the enemies, who are against God’s will. The believers of the old in their times fought their battles and persevered until they were vindicated. You must not allow the threats of the powers of darkness; the oppositions of demons from the suicide departments, to sweep off your faith. You must believe in God and pray until your deliverance comes. No matter the difficulty or circumstance you find yourself, you must remain loyal to God to the end.
As you pray the prayers in this book, you must know what you want. Have specific goals you want to achieve. Be determined to pray every day until every problem bows.

“For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Corinthians 10:3-5).

Spiritual warfare cannot be fought with human techniques. Shun any distracting activities that will try to hinder you from victory. You cannot be deeply involved with too many affairs of this world and yet be a good soldier of Christ. You must ignore every youthful lust, cut off every source of distraction and resist the forces backing up every problem in your life on suicide missions.
“Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier” (2 Timothy 2:3-4).

“Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul” (1 Peter 2:11).

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death” (Revelation 12:11).

As you rely on God and closely follow His Word, every problem on suicide missions in your life will die. You must regard obedience to God and His Word more importantly than your personal convenience. It is time to pray, fast and resist any temptation that can lead you to any act of ungodliness. Pray and walk with the consciousness of God’s presence.
“There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years. And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest’s office before God in the order of his course, According to the custom of the priest’s office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord... But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John” (Luke 1:5-9, 13).

In the days of Herod, a man called Zacharias remained righteous; walking in all the commandments of God. He was blameless; praying and believing God till the day that he had an angelic visitation. Barrenness did not harvest his life because he fought the problems on suicide missions with the armours of God.

"Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither. And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there... And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, THOU man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid. And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life. And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers... And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and THEN died... Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes” (2 Kings 4:10-11, 16-18, 20, 35).

The problems on suicide missions in the house of the woman of Shunem allowed her to prosper, build estates, and made it in every area of life, except in child bearing. The demons on suicide missions focused their attention on her womb and captured her reproductive organ. By her faithfulness in seed sowing, she attracted the man with higher anointing that God used to break the yoke of barrenness in her life. The prayers in this book came with a higher anointing that will break the yoke of every problem in your life.

“And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people. Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother”

The problems on suicide missions or untimely death killed the husband of this widow. Thereafter, her only son was killed by this same power but at the point of his burial, to close the door of that family, Jesus intervened. Maybe the problem on suicide missions has killed your business, marriage, health, prosperity, and closed every good womb in your family and life. If you invite Jesus into your life; into the battlefield, He will quicken your destiny. Maybe your destiny, marriage, joy, peace, or prosperity is at the point of being buried; they can receive life now if you pray. Maybe you have a problem that has brought constant weeping into your life; Jesus can stop your weeping now.
“In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done THAT WHICH IS good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city” (Isaiah 38:1-6).

Hezekiah’s sickness unto death came from God; your problem may not come from the devil, it may come as a result of evil inheritance, ancestral sins, and envious witchcraft attacks. But they can be destroyed.
“Then there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites” (2 Samuel 21:1).

When David prayed after suffering famine for three years, God told him that he has no problem with him but with a dead Saul. What someone did many years ago may rise to hurt you.

“Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities” (Lamentation 5:7).

No matter the source of your problem, if you do what you are supposed to do, they will bow. Everyone told Hezekiah to write his will and die but he refused. Even God judged him to die but he turned his face in prayer towards God and convinced God to extent his life on earth. You may have received many negative medical reports and prophesies from men of God; but if you turn to God and God only, you will live and not die.

“And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only” (I Samuel 7:3-4).

No matter how wicked, sinful, and abominable you are, if you can change your mind to follow God and God only, you will be delivered from every problem.

“And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him... And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing... He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight” (John 9:1-3, 7, 11).

God at times allows people to stay long in their problems until they do what He wants them to do; until everyone is done, and gets tired of mocking them. Some people enter into problems and God allows them until they are declared hopeless so that the name of God will be glorified at the point of their deliverance.

“And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?.. Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath” (John 5:5-6, 8-9).

This book is designed to set people of whatever bondage free. You need to co-operate with God for your deliverance to come. Even if you are already buried, you can be delivered. What I mean by been buried is people who are alive but the problems on suicide missions has killed all that will make them happy; leaving them alive as a walking corpses.

“They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth” (Jeremiah 16:4).

“Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick… Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead… Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days. Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me” (John 11:1-3, 14, 38-42).

You may be alive but the devil may have killed your original and buried it. The devil may have destroyed everything that gives you joy and allowed you to be alive as dung upon the earth. No matter your state, deliverance is possible. Just believe God and choose a programme you wish in this book and your story will change far better unto the best.

“And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold. So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses” (Job 42:10-12).

The above examples serve as challenges to you and to prove that the abundant grace of God is sufficient to you if you believe. Do all that you are supposed to do and pray.

When Jesus saw the glory and benefits that was set before Him, He despised the shame, and went to the cross to ransom us. There should therefore be nothing too great; and no price too high for you to pay to get your deliverance. Don’t allow laziness, pride etc., to rob you of your deliverance.
An Invitation to Become a Ministry Partner

In response to several calls from readers of my books on how to partner with this ministry, we are grateful to provide our ministry’s bank details.

Be assured that our continued prayers for you will be answered according to God’s word. And as you remain faithful by sowing seeds of faith, God will never forget your labours of love in Christ.
